

DEFT SCENARIO COMPARISON
FEATURES	TYPES OF SCENARIOS
	I	II	III
Basic form of fish protection at export pumps	Achieved through new more restrictive standards.	Achieved through environmental water account and eco-manager.	Achieved through export reductions using fish triggers.
Means of balancing water supply	Relaxations of standards.	Strict accounting of water from relaxing standards.	Sharing of water supply balance after employing export restrictions and relaxations.
Timing of balancing water supply	Gradually balanced in Stage 1 as new water supply are developed.	Always balanced by strict accounting or contract allocation.	Short term deficits and surpluses may occur, but balanced over long term.

Sharing of new water supply.	New water supplies allocated to water users, but application of new standards may be tied to water supply development.	New water supply shared.	New water supply shared.
-------------------------------------	------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------	--------------------------	--------------------------